

Fee Breakdown

Course Fees

Course fees with our partner universities range from £12,000 per year to around £30,000 per year. We also offer bursaries so in actuality, your course fees may be lower. Your course fees can be figured out with your consultant on an individual basis.

Cost ~ £12,000 per year

Health Surcharge

The cost of the UK health surcharge will be £470 per year. This is the current published fee but may be subject to change. The charge will be calculated based on the length of the Visa leave issued to you, this is often referred to as 'Leave'. If your Course length is more than 1 Year in duration, then the leave given is generally 5 additional months. The breakdown of the 5 months is 1 Month before your course begins and 4 Months after your course ends – total 17 months (12 months + 5 months). To understand more on the Health Surcharge and exactly how much you need to pay please visit the link below: <https://www.immigration-health-surcharge.service.gov.uk/checker/type>

Table:

Length of Course	Maximum Length of Leave	Surcharge Payable
1 Year	1 Year plus 5 months	£705
2 Years	2 Years plus 5 months	£1175
3 Years	3 Years plus 5 months	£1645
4 Years	4 Years plus 5 months	£2115

Cost ~ £530 per year

Tuberculosis Test

You may need a TB test to enter the United Kingdom. You'll need to have a tuberculosis (TB) test if you're coming to the UK for more than 6 months and are resident in any of these listed countries. You will be given a chest x-ray to test for TB. If the result of the x-ray is not clear you may also be asked to give a sputum sample (phlegm coughed up from your lungs). If your test shows that you do not have TB, you will be given a certificate which is valid for 6 months from the date of your x-ray. Include this certificate with your UK visa application.

Earning Money in the UK

Working Part Time in the UK during your course

One way of part funding your degree is by working while you study. You can find student jobs with us and earn up to anything between £700 to £1,200 per month during term time and £1,400 to £2,400 in vacation time. You can find jobs in restaurants, retail, doing data entry and more. This is a clever and effective way of funding your degree.

Total potential earnings: £11,200 - £19,200

Working in the UK and internationally after your course

After completion of your degree, you can apply for a 2-year visa, called the 'Post Study Work Visa'. This means you can look for full time employment and are able to work in the UK for 2 years. The average starting salary for a university graduate in the UK is £29,000! You can earn back the money you spent on your degree. We partner with Student Circus, who will help you find a job by giving you access to recruitment platforms that are designed specifically for international students. They work with companies such as Rolls Royce, Ernst & Young, Airbus and more. If you are more inclined to go back to your home country or to travel elsewhere in the world, don't worry as a UK degree is one of the few qualifications that is world recognised and renowned. Employers will understand that your degree is from the UK, and you will be at an advantage for many career opportunities.

Total Potential Earnings: £24,000 - £30,000
